Mr. James T. Kendall
Chief Counsel,
Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee
Committee on Armed Services
United States Senate

Dear Mr. Kendall:

In response to your letter to Mr. McCone of 28 June 1963, I have attached for the Subcommittee ^{STAFF'S} ~~staff's~~ use a report updating his statement of 25 February 1963 on Cuban subversion in Latin America.

Also attached are two reports supplying information on the flight of capital from Latin America and on terrorist activities in Venezuela, as requested in paragraph 3 of your letter.

~~The~~ Department of State and ~~the~~ Defense Intelligence Agency were consulted on various aspects of these reports, and have concurred in the final draft. The reports therefore represent the coordinated views of the three agencies.

I trust that this material will meet the requirements of the Subcommittee.

Sincerely,
